RE: Rent increase notice at _____
Address

Dear _____,
Name of landlord

I am writing to inform you of my intentions based on the law regarding rent increase notices. Pursuant to VSA Title 9, Chapter 137, Section 4455(b) of the Vermont state statutes, a landlord may increase rent “on the first day of the rental period following no less than 60 days actual notice to the tenant.”

You provided me with notice of an increase on _____.

Therefore, the increase should not legally take effect until _____, the date my next rent payment is due after “no less than 60 days actual notice” and I will not begin paying the increased rent until this date.

I thank you in advance for recognizing my legal rights in this matter.

Sincerely,
