RE: Landlord Access at _____.
(address)

Dear _____,

name of landlord

I am writing to inform you of the law regarding landlord access. Pursuant to chapter 137, section 4460 of the Vermont state statutes, a landlord may enter the unit with the tenant's consent. Without consent, a landlord can enter the unit between 9:00 A.M. and 9:00 P.M. on no less than 48 hours notice to:

1. inspect the premises;
2. make necessary or agreed repairs, alterations, or improvements;
- 3 supply agreed services; or
4. exhibit the unit to prospective or actual purchasers, mortgagees, tenants, workers or contractors.

A landlord can only enter the unit without consent or notice when there is a "reasonable belief that there is imminent danger to any person or property."

I thank you in advance for complying with the law.

Sincerely,

RE: Notice of problem(s) at _____
address

Dear _____,
name of landlord

I am writing to make you formally aware of serious problems existing at

_____. The following needs to be done:
Address

Pursuant to chapter 137, sections 4457 and 4458 of the Vermont state statutes, a landlord is required to maintain premises that are safe, clean, and fit for human habitation and that comply with housing and health regulations. If a landlord fails to comply with those obligations within a reasonable time and this noncompliance affects health and safety, a tenant may:

1. Withhold the payment of rent for the period of noncompliance;
2. Obtain injunctive relief;
3. Recover damages, costs and reasonable attorney's fees; and
4. Terminate the rental agreement on reasonable notice.

I request that these problems be taken care of as quickly as possible. If a reasonable effort to fix these problems is not made, I will be pursuing one or more of the above legal options which may specifically include withholding rent payment. Let this serve as your notice of my intent to pursue such action(s).

Sincerely,

RE: Late Fees

Dear _____,
name of landlord or managing agent

I am writing to make you aware of the Vermont case law regulating the practice of charging late fees. According to [Highgate Associates, Ltd v. Lorna Merryfield, Supreme Court Docket No. 90-032], landlords may only charge a tenant a late fee to cover expenses actually incurred as a result of the tenants' tardiness in paying rent. Such a fee may not simply be a penalty. A late fee which is not reasonably related to the landlord's expenses is invalid and the tenant does not have to pay it.

I am requesting that you present documentation showing that the fee is equal to your expenses. If you cannot or will not show this documentation, I am under no obligation to pay the late fee.

RE: Return of security deposit.

Dear _____(name of landlord),

It has been more than 14 days since I notified you that I have moved out of your rental unit at _____(address). I still have not received my security deposit back or a written itemized list of deductions.

Pursuant to chapter 137, section 4461 of the Vermont state statutes, if a landlord fails to return a security deposit and/or a written list of deductions within 14 days from the date the landlord discovers that the tenant had vacated the unit, or the date the tenant gives the landlord notice that they have vacated the unit, the landlord forfeits the right to keep any of the deposit. Furthermore, Aif the failure is willful, the landlord shall be liable for double the amount wrongfully withheld, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

I request that you return my deposit to me at once. You may mail it to the following address:
